

JUST SO STORIES

adapted by Robert Watson. Palmerston Library.

July 12 at 11 am, July 13 at 4 pm, July 15 at noon. Rating: NNNN

Robert Watson's trio of tales by Rudyard Kipling gets a fine staging by director Andrew Lamb, with Kipling himself (Alan Lee) as narrator. Cleverly staged, with inventive costumes by Monique Stewart, the show has humour for all age groups; Watson even takes a sly look at Kipling's status as a supporter of colonialism and patriarchy. The cast, which includes Denise Pinnock, Jayne Walling and Dale Yim, is full of bubbly energy. It's a pleasure to see a production like this that draws on an audience's imagination and participation to create a successful show.

JK

EYE WEEKLY .com

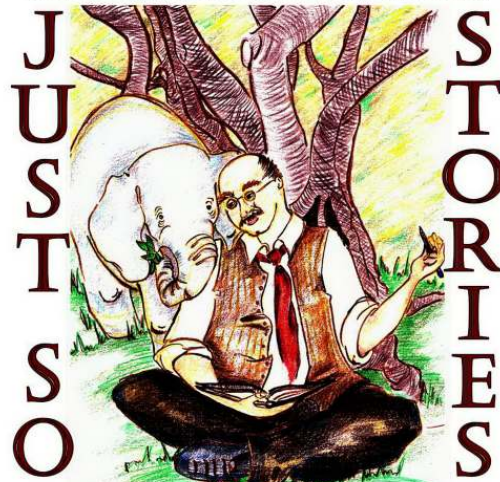

JUST SO STORIES

★★★★

KIDZ Productions brings three classic Rudyard Kipling stories to life in this meta-theatrical retelling. Engaging performances, witty dialogue and ingenious props charm and entertain. Kids will like this show; parents will love it. Rebecca Keenan

From the creative team that brought you The Balloon Tree, KIDZ Productions Presents RUDYARD KIPLING'S

By Robert Watson Directed by Andrew Lamb

At The Palmerston Library Theatre

560 Palmerston Avenue (North of Bloor)

Friday July 6 @ 3:30pm, Saturday July 7 @ 5:45pm

Sunday July 8 @ 1pm, Tuesday July 10 @ 7pm

Wednesday July 11 @ 12:45pm, Thursday July 12 @ 11am

Friday July 13 @ 4pm, Sunday July 15 @ 12 Noon

"This is the best kind of theatre for young audiences..." - Jon Kaplan, NOW

www.justsostoriesplay.com

Illustration by Monique Stewart copyright © 2007